Theatrical Notes

With massive and beautiful stage effects and telling a story of surpassing interest from the first to the last curtain, "The James Boys in Missouri" comes Friday. The largest piece of scenery ever built is required to show the Blue Cut Train robbery, one of the thrilling incidents of the life of the famous bandits. At The Kentucky Friday.

"Hoity Toity" is said to be entertaining, magnificently staged, beautifully costumed and capably played, which is not surprising when it is known that Weber and Fields are responsible for it. Those of our theatre-goers who have not had the pleasure of an evening with Weber and Fields in their cosy little New York theatre will no doubt rejoice that these managers have decided to yield to the clamor throughout the country for a road production of "Hoity Toity," the greatest musical comedy success New York has seen in many a year; and that Manager English has had the enterprise to secure this exceptionally high-class entertainment for a matinee and night Saturday, Dec. 31, which is all the more commendable in view of the fact that a guarantee was required.

Many friends of Mr. Martin Beatty, of Paducah, and his popular wife, will be glad to learn that they will be here Friday with "The James Boys of Missouri." They spent the summer at the world's fair and only recently joined the company. Mr. Beatty's stage name is Montrose Howard.

Manager English had "King Dodo" booked for January 14th, but has been notified that it will close this season this week at Cincinnati. Miss Rose Cecilia Shea, who was here with her grand opera troupe last season, is singing the leading role.

Manager J. E. English is daily booking more good shows for the Kentucky. He has Gus Hill's "Happy Hooligan" company Jan. 14th, Princess Chie in February and Tim Murphy January 9th. He has also practically booked "The Forbidden Land," which made such a hit earlier in the season, although it could not begin until 10 o'clock on account of a late arrival, for a return date.

Sweethearts and wives, lovers and husbands—the others don't count, will readily admit that there are two times when a woman hates the man she loves. Once when she is in the right and he is in the wrong, and the other time when he is in the right and she is in the wrong. There is no reason for this. It simply is, Lord Lumley, the dear "Mummy" in "The Mummy and the Humming Bird," that most brilliant of all modern comedies, which will be presented here on Monday night at The Kentucky. One critic has said: "Go and see 'The Mummy and the Humming Bird.' It will make you wise, happier and better."
